Christian hospitality: the church and global migration

Migration and hospitality have been part of human history since biblical times. Today, responses to increasing global migration often promote the building of walls, countering the biblical call to hospitality. Join Mennonite Central Committee as we consider biblical hospitality to respond faithfully to God's call to be a welcoming church.

Declaration of Solidarity with Indigenous Peoples – I

This three-part series explores the document that the Mennonite World Conference General Council approved in Kenya 2018. The first workshop explores the MWC Declaration of Solidarity with Indigenous Peoples document. It offers a glimpse into the background of this document, including the struggle of the Wounaan People and the way in which they, through their request, served as impetus for the crafting of this document. It also highlights the development of the document and the way it has been used thus far.

The "Pilgrimage of Justice and Peace" of the WCC

The World Council of Churches called for a "pilgrimage" of justice and peace. Applying a transformative spirituality, local communities have been visited in every region, to celebrate the gifts of life, to touch the wounds and to transform the injustices. Key-themes have emerged on the way: truth and trauma, land and displacement, gender justice, and racism.

Merienda Menonita: el arte de conversar y la práctica de escuchar

Thinking of following Jesus across borders, we believe that an essential point is to be able to converse and listen with people who are different from us. Merienda Mennonita hosts present exercises, tools and examples on how to better listen and converse across differences, be they of culture, identity, economics, politics, age, etc. In Merienda Mennonita, we share stories and conversations with guests about how to live the Christian call in Latin America. Together we explore how to follow Christ in everyday life, and what Anabaptism can offer the Latin American church today. Merienda Mennonita is a podcast produced in association with Mennonite Mission Network and Anabaptist World, Inc.

La fondation de la CEM : une extension osée de l'anabaptisme en RDC.

Née suite au refoulement des mennonites baluba de Ndjoku Punda où ils étaient des membres influents de la CIM, la CEM est une conséquence de courage, de persévérance et d'abnégation réels de ses pionniers. Aujourd'hui, soixante ans après, grâce à cette détermination, elle est une réalité spirituelle vivante évidente.
